A/1      A-G      A/1    A-G
Herman Melville wrote a book
A/1      A-G          F
It's big and thick - I gotta read Moby Dick.
A/1      A-G    A/1      A-G
Quequeg is cool. He ain't no fool.
A/1                      A-G          F
A kick back modern primitive with bitchin' tattoos.
A/1              A-G      A/1              A-G
He's gonna save you - he's gonna save you
A/1      A-G    F
Someday Jonah he's gonna save you.
A/1              A-G      A/1      A-G
We've come so far, so far from home
A/1              A-G    F
We come from the land of the mother stone

A/1 - A-G: (x3) - F

(no bar - just slide E chord)

E      E4      E6          E
Ahab bustin' loose on a raft
E              E4      E6              E
The sea it swallows his hearty laugh
E              E4      E6      E
Takes our ship upon a path
    E              E4      E6              E
Enlightened!
E              E4      E6              E
Sails are moving through debris
E      E4              E6              E
Ahoy captain are you calling me?
E      E4      E6              E
I can barely hear you scream!
E      E4      E6              E
I can barely hear you breathe
            E      E4      E6              E
Over the breeze!
