

Far Away From Home by J.E.Moores

I'm going so far away from home
I am scared and all alone.
This would be better with a friend at my side
We could laugh and enjoy the ride
All the way to the end
Me and "my friend".
Could you imagine anyone ever liking me?
It's kinda scary to be real
And all the things it can reveal
Sometimes I feel there is no hope at all.
This is the world where I live
Life is what you give.
Bring it all you have.
If life is all you have
What you have is what you bring.
Better bring a song to sing.
It's better with a song to sing!
