

Reach Out To Me by J.E.Moores

I want to thank you for spending a day here with me

You could be anywhere. You're so busy

But I want to thank you. Thank you for taking the time

I will hold it forever in my heart.

But all the while the world is calling you, pulling you in all directions.

There's so much for you to do.

I am here for you now

Not for very much longer

I am here for you now

Reach out to me.

I am here for you now

Not for very much longer

I am here for you now

Reach out to me. Reach out to me.

Raise your hands

Reach out to me! Reach out to me!
