

Sad Songs In Disguise by J.E.Moores July 2021

D C G
I write sad songs in disguise.
D C G
You can pass only so many tears through those eyes.
D C G
I'd rather sing a silly song, simple words and not too long
D C G
It reminds me of something my daddy once said to me:
D C G
"Don't be the last one to find humor in your tragedy."
D C
It feels good to get the first laugh and the last laugh
G
With all the chuckles in between.
D C G
That feels good to me.
D C G
Don't let the bastards see ya scream.
D C G
With a single laugh you join the winning team.

D C G
I write sad songs in disguise
D C G
Watch a sunny day turn to cloudy skies.
D C G
I like to walk in the rain, I love the darkness of the night.
D C G
I'll be all right.
D C G
You'll be all right.
