William needs a brand new coat
The sky is bright and white
There's something wrong he will not say
How he got here or where he stays

E/3 A/2
Ice collecting in his beard
His eyes don't see what his mind describes
All is not that which it seems
Tell me, do you remember your dreams?

 F
He's getting old and a bit short sighted
Going bald with wrongs all slighted
Spread a blanket on the pier
Learn to time travel out of here

E/3 A/2
"Do you ever get that slippery feeling?
Shooting stars and planets reeling
I stood the platform and met you there."
William said to my vacant stare.

 F
"I have forgotten all there is to know
I am free now so I must go."
William got his brand new coat
The sky is bright and white.

E/3 A/2
Found him floating way down stream
Tell me, do you remember your dreams?

All is not that which it seems
Tell me, do you remember your dreams? :
