

Take The World by J.E.Moores

Take the world
'Cause there's only one
Gotta feed your daughters and feed your sons
We all know waging war is no fun
But'cha gotta feed your daughters
And feed your sons – something must be done
Something rash must be done – and done fast
Don't-cha think we should? Gotta take it if ya could!

And if nothing is what you choose to do
Someone else will get it before you

It's okay to stand up
It's okay to be heard and seen
Time is short – you gotta live – you're a human being
