

Tent by J.E.Moores

I love my wife
She keeps me warm at night
Nothing else could be finer
I pitched a tent in her vagina
I plan to be here for a while
I love her smile
Looking down at me
I roast my hot dog by the fire
Juices dripping with desire
I love her smile
I pitched a tent in her vagina
I plan to be here for a while
I've never known anyone kinder
She understands me
It feels so easy and free
There's no one I love in my life
Like I love my wife
Yes, I will be here for a while
